

General Data Protection Regulation

Information about our use of General Data and protection regulation

We want to inform you that our organization does the activities in order to offer the maximum protection of your personal data, which you provide us or the others if we came to know, this is in accordance to the article 13 of EU Regulation 2016/679.

These are the data necessary for the management of the employment relationship, among which they can also be included confidential data with special protection, such as:

- registration to trade unions, if the union withholdings are requested,
- information on your health conditions in case of accidents, illness, disability,
- religious affiliation, if the use of permits or rests is required due to the occurrence of particular religious holidays, or in case of other specific requests,
- personal data of the components of its family nucleus.

These data will be used only for the direct purpose for which there are provided, we want to specified that the Guarantor for the protection of personal data has issued general authorization for the processing of such data in the context of the employment relationship, however, please confirm us your consent, please remember that the not consent to the use of data or the failure to provide some data, it could make it impossible to apply some of the services that are legally or contractually provided due.

Please you Consider that:

- the data may be transmitted by us to the labor consultant who takes care of the relative aspects on our behalf to pay, and in any case to consultants in general who we need to use, without prejudice to part of our commitment to communicate only the information essential to the service provided;
- the same data may be provided by us to public bodies that, according to current regulations, do so request;
- At any time you may request, without prejudice to the foregoing in reference to the failure consent, to exercise your rights, including access to personal data processed, the request to proceed to their correction or cancellation, to the limitation of the processing, as well as to propose a complaint to the Privacy Guarantor.

We also inform you that, as part of the activity of SEAL'S SYSTEM S.R.L., they may be carried out filming and recording and that these can be used in the information material and promotional, both on paper and by publication on SEAL'S SYSTEM S.R.L.

General Data Protection Regulation

Please remember that all the data and information that comes to his knowledge for the development of his work are strictly confidential and can not be transmitted outside SEAL'S SYSTEM S.R.L. without specific authorization, and that this prohibition also remains in the event of termination of his relationship with SEAL'S SYSTEM S.R.L.

The data controller is SEAL'S SYSTEM S.R.L., with the following contacts:

- Location: Capriolo (BS) in viale degli Abruzzi n. 18/20
- Telephone 0307460369
- Mail info@sealssystem.it